

MEd in Clinical Mental Health Counseling at Lynchburg

Serve, grow, and lead with a Master of Education degree in Clinical Mental Health Counseling from Lynchburg. Designed to train effective, ethical practitioners, our comprehensive counseling program will help you make a positive and immediate impact.

Program highlights:

- 60 credit hours.
- Flexible curriculum to fit your schedule.
- Small, interactive classes where diverse experiences and ideas are valued.
- Faculty who work closely with you to support your professional goals.
- Community-based learning opportunities.
- Graduate fully ready for licensure.

Program includes:

- Core courses for the MEd, such as Crisis Counseling, Counseling Techniques, and Addiction Counseling.
- Additional classroom instruction specific to clinical counseling.
- Experiential learning that links theory with practice.
- Relevant on-site training in mental health settings.

Apply online at lynchburg.edu/apply

University of Lynchburg

lynchburg.edu/counseling

22%

PROJECTED JOB GROWTH OVER
10 YEARS

(Source: Bureau of Labor Statistics)

ROLLING ADMISSION

NO GRE REQUIRED

ACCREDITED BY THE
COUNCIL FOR ACCREDITATION OF COUNSELING AND RELATED EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

(CACREP)

MEd in Clinical Mental Health Counseling at Lynchburg

You'll be prepared for entry-level counseling positions in:

- Community mental health agencies
- Human service organizations
- Outpatient counseling centers
- Drug and alcohol treatment programs
- Psychiatric hospitals

More information

Daniel Hall, PhD, LPC

Program Director

434.544.7924 | hall_dp@lynchburg.edu

Apply online at lynchburg.edu/apply

University of Lynchburg

lynchburg.edu/counseling